*Named as one of the Right Women, Right Now, 14 in '14

by Republican State Leadership Committee's Future Majority Project

NORTH KINGSTOWN, RI — Sharon Gamba, Republican Candidate for House District 32, received the endorsement of the Republican State Leadership Committee (RSLC)'s Future Majority Project. Gamba was named one of the Right Women, Right Now, 14 in '14 Races to Watch.

The RSLC is a national organization seeking to recruit, endorse and promote highly competent women and ethnically diverse candidates from across the country. For this election cycle RSLC has helped recruit 244 diverse candidates and 558 women. Of those 802 candidates nationwide and through three rounds of endorsements, Sharon Gamba is one of only 32 women who have made the cut.

Jill Bader, Communications Director for the RSLC stated: "The RSLC recognizes outstanding candidates, like Sharon, who go above and beyond to run strong campaigns. We have identified Sharon's campaign for the Rhode Island House District 32 as one of the top "races to watch" across the nation because of her outstanding credentials, her hard work, grit and determination. We know she will be an outstanding representative for the taxpayers of North Kingstown and all the people of Rhode Island."

"I am honored that my campaign for District 32 has received this level of national recognition," Gamba stated. "To be selected from a national group of distinguished candidates and to be associated with some of the most impressive women is truly inspirational," she observed. "Having my candidacy recognized in this way makes me even more determined to win this election, so together we can move our community and state forward. I am ready and I am qualified. As a businesswoman, job creator, taxpayer advocate, wife, mother and grandmother, I have both the backbone and the motivation to return control of District 32 to the taxpayers of North Kingstown."

"I have said all along that this race is one of the most important in the state, and it is clear the RSLC believes it is one of the most important in the country, as they seek to help return government to the taxpayers. It's time to turn the "insiders into outsiders." We simply cannot afford two more years of 38 Studios bond repayments, runaway budget deficits and insider politicians controlling our community," concluded Gamba.
